FOUNDATION OF TRUTH LIES IN THE CHURCH

Pulpit at St. Paul's M. E. Church is Filled by Other Local Pastors.

"The church is the pillar and the foundation of the truth," said Rev. M. H. Appleby in his sermon at St. Paul's M. E. church Sunday morning in the absence of Rev. J. L. Gardner, who will return next Sunday from his summer vacation.

Rev. Mr. Appleby took his text from First Timothy, 3-15, pointing out that the church was an institution founded on grounds that were centuries old and based on facts that have truth for a foundation.

In the evening Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick of the Trinity M. E. church delivered the sermon, using the subject, "What is Goodness." Both services were well attended and special music was furnished by the choir.

TELLS OF NEED OF GOD

Rev. A. G. Schafer Speaks Tonight on Labor.

For the text of his Sunday morning sermon, Rev. A. Schafer, of the Lowell Heights M. E. church, chose a thought from the Sunday school, dwelling upon the need we have of God in our lives. He said we must feel the need of God and desire him. We must prepare ourselves to accept him. He brought out the thought that by keeping his commandments we become "a peculiar treasure to him." All the world is His and therefore if we keep his commandments there is nothing that we cannot expect at His hands.

CHRIST, THE GREAT IDEAL

L. G. Whitcomb Fills Pulpit at Trinity Presbyterian.

Services at the Trinity Presbyterian church were unusually well attended Sunday morning. In the absence of Rev. J. S. Burns, L. G. Whitcomb delivered the sermon, speaking of Christian friendship and Christian ideals, and pointing out that the heroes we meet in life have a wonderful influence on our souls. He pictured Christ as the Great Ideal, and exhorted his hearers to accept Christ as their model in life.

Rev. Mr. Burns will return from his vacation and will be in charge of the services next Sunday.

MID-SEASON HATS THAT ADD A CHIC STYLE TO THE EARLY FALL SUIT

The center hat shown is, perhaps, the most popular shape at present. It is of black velvet, banded about the rim with white ribbon. About the crown the ribbon is laced in soft folds and tied in front into a small bow from which the ribbon is twisted into an upstanding pleated ornament.

White or light colored velvet saleros, trimmed with crepe de chine, also make natty head coverings for the first fall months.

For the high school girl there is nothing better than a soft hat in corduroy of gray or tan, trimmed with the same toned ribbon.

A gray matinee "poke" that depends from an almost square crown and has for trimming black velvet and an upstanding American beauty rose is a splendid idea to copy if one wishes a dress hat for early fall.

BARB HEAVEN TO WOMEN WEARERS OF SLIT SKIRTS

Minister Says the Present Day Styles Are Making a Carnival in Hell—Lose Interest in Clothes.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—"I am sure the devil is having a carnival in hell with the styles worn by the women in the streets of New York city today," declared the Rev. Dr. Leo S. Brough, pastor of Christ church, Westminster, London, Sunday night in his sermon at the Tent Evangel, 124th street near Amsterdam avenue. "Certainly, if I were the devil I would not enjoy anything so much as a walk up Broadway or Fifth avenue looking at all the skirts and other new styles of women's dress."

The way Dr. Brough came to mention slit skirts and speak about the very tight and quite transparent gowns now worn by many women was that the text for his sermon was—"Shall We Know Our Loved Ones in Heaven?" His surmise was that those who wear the slit skirts will not be recognized in heaven because they won't get there.

"Until very recently I never knew a woman who was not interested in jewelry and clothes," he continued. "But now they have lost their interest in clothing and are going around the streets without any on. I don't know any place where the devil could be happier than in New York this summer, where the prevailing fashion for women is to wear as few clothes as possible and make these few as short and transparent as possible. These things lead only to the devil. They tempt men and no woman ever fell without the aid of a man."

At this point many women in the large audience applauded. But there are others who did not applaud and who might have frowned. "Yes I know some of you will say, 'You needn't come over here where we New York women dress,' the clergyman went on. 'Then, why don't you New York women quit getting yourselves in such a fix as to get talked about. Many of the women dress the way they do to get talked about.'"

In discussing whether in heaven we shall know our loved ones who drink while on earth," Dr. Brough added: "There are a lot of good men just as good as you who are getting drunk. What you Christians ought to do is to go to them and sit up with them and pray with them. Then they would quit drinking."

DR. THOMSON'S
EYE TALKS
(TALK NO. 169.)

Nervousness.

Eye-strain in most cases is really nerve-strain. If the eyes are out of focus or compelled to work unnaturally, there is a loss of nervous energy in keeping them adjusted. There is no organ in the human body which requires such accurate adjustments or such delicate precision. To have imperfectly focussed eyes means to rob the whole system of nervous force. The result is nervousness. There are a great many people who are nervous and cross and irritable from no other cause. They may be naturally even tempered but the constant strain is more than the nerves can bear. I have known glasses in many cases to completely change the wearer's disposition. If you are suffering from nervousness in any form have your eyes carefully examined. I will do it for you any time free of charge and will advise you honestly.

James Craig is a prosperous merchant of Silverton, Oregon. He has time to think of the health and happiness of those about him.

A young lady school teacher, the daughter of a friend, was succumbing to Bright's Disease. Craig wrote to the late N. W. Spalding, then United States Sub-treasurer of San Francisco, to ask if there was any truth in the report that Bright's Disease was being cured in California. Spalding replied that after he had spent $10,000 with physicians his own daughter had recovered, and that too after the dropsy had developed and the case was supposed to be hopeless. He told him to tell the father to put the patient on Fulton's Renal Compound.

Craig advised the girl's father of the satisfactory nature of the report and the Renal Compound was taken to the patient. She recovered and was teaching school at last address.

Craig was so delighted that he told others. He has sent us the names of nearly a dozen whom he has helped to new leases of life.

If you have Bright's Disease you owe it to yourself and family to try Fulton's Renal Compound before giving up. It can be had at Woods & Striebel.

Ask for pamphlet on our investigation of the curability of Bright's Disease or write Jno. J. Fulton Co., San Francisco.
